Sullivan County Department of Corrections

Job Developer/Case Manager Position

The Sullivan County Department of Corrections is a Job Developer/Case Manager for the Community Corrections Center. The Community Corrections Center offers a comprehensive array of jail-based and community corrections programs to its inmates. This innovative program provides a range of services in a residential re-entry program targeting reintegration back into the community. This is currently a grant position.

Qualifications

Candidates should possess: A Bachelors degree in the human services or related field, or a bachelor's degree and a minimum of three years experience working in treatment programs; Case management experience, including proven ability to work as part of a multi-disciplinary treatment team; Ability to coordinate with partnering agencies and with community service providers; and strong written and oral communication skills.