Item	Discussion	Action
DOC Data Report – Superintendent Hagar	Ed Gil de Rubio had previously discussed the data report with Judge R. Morrill and Scott Hagar regarding data. Judge R. Morrill briefly discussed the statistical information, on the data sheet, and decided that it may be easier if it was broken down into a spreadsheet format. Cindy Vezina offered an example of a break down of the statistics, which went year to year in a format that may be useful and easier to read. Judge R. Morrill then spoke on the break down, of the pre-trial data sheet. Scott Hagar and Alex Scott offered suggestions. Ed Gil de Rubio then added the question of, “what kind of data would you need?” Scott Hagar added, “that it all depends on which facility you needed the information from.” Then the statistics; from different facilities, was discussed by several members, Ed Gil de Rubio then suggested, “that they might start with DOC and branch down into the whole system.”

Item	Discussion	Action
Discussion of Issues and Concerns	Judge R. Morrill responded by saying, "that if you start with DOC their figures are relevant" he also wanted to look at the drug crimes. Marc Hathaway responded by asking, "are the polices we are using now the polices we want to continue to use?" Then Marc Hathaway asked, "what impact does treatment programming have, and can we get treatment programming?" Marc Hathaway then explained, how this would be broken down into how time is served. Then Scott Hagar, and Judge R. Morrill, discussed pre-trial confinement. Ed Gil de Rubio then asked, "What does are criminal justice look like, and what should we be looking at?" Judge R. Morrill suggested, looking at the financial state of the juvenile criminal system. Sheriff Michael Prozzo said, "that this would be more changeable then DOC." This was then discussed by several members, and Ed Gil de Rubio then added, he would like to see how to break this down to make it more financially sound. Then several members discussed the issues on pre-trial population; Judge R. Morrill then suggested, a juvenile detention facility, of our own. Sheriff Michael Prozzo suggested calling Sherrie Curtis, for financial information, on the correction facilities. Several members discussed the issues and concerns of our own detention facility; Judge B. Cardello suggests a juvenile detention hall over night residential at the house. This issue was discussed by several members, also added was the question of cost, transportation, and where this facility would be located. Ed Gil de Rubio suggested the maple hill building; he also suggested that the County would run it.
