

Sullivan County Health Care celebrated Volunteer Appreciation Week in style with a dessert after hours where tokens of gratitude were given out to all 32 registered volunteers Thursday night, along with various raffle items and plenty of delicious goodies prepared by the facility staff. Ann Shepherd, director of the activities department, said, "We wanted to do something to show our appreciation to the large variety of people who volunteer their services." JESSE BAKER PHOTO